

Trekenner Community Primary School

Curriculum Mapping Subject for Literacy

The Thieves of Ostia: Writing to recount and debate: recap KS1 Grammar

Running Wild: Writing to advise and explain, survival guides: Tenses and conjunctions

The Land of Neverbelieve: Writing to describe settings, persuade. Poetry Limericks: using adverbs, adverbials and prepositions

Where the mountain meets the moon: narrative adventure stories and legends, writing to inform, reports, Poetry: Nonsense Poems: speech, tenses, nouns and pronouns, paragraphs

The Firework Maker's Daughter: Diary writing and playscripts: speech, apostrophes and contractions,

Boy: Writing to recount and balance arguments: nouns and pronouns, clauses and phrases, adverbials, tenses

Around the World in Eighty Days: writing to create narrative and inform: using commas, active and passive voice, word classes, synonyms and antonyms

Fellowship of the Ring: Writing for letters, developing character and setting. Using parenthesis, colons and semi colons, speech, formal and informal language

Arthur High King of Britain: Narrative writing legends. Cohesion and layout devices.

War horse: Writing letters and recount: nouns, pronouns, clauses and types of sentence.

Animals at War: Writing to inform and poetry: Using commas, active and passive voice, word classes, synonyms and antonyms

The Hobbit: Writing to describe settings and adventure narrative: punctuation

Save the Sumatran Tiger /Before it's too Late: Writing to persuade and narrative ghost stories: Cohesive and layout devices

Badgers B

Owls A

Owls B

Wolf Brother: Writing to: describe, narrative, journalistic, Christmas poems. KS1 Grammar review, conjunctions and tenses.

The Egyptian Cinderella: narratives and playscripts: using Adverbs and speech

The River Singers: Writing to persuade and explain: prepositions and tenses

Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone: Setting descriptions, letter and instructional writing. Nouns, pronouns, apostrophes, clause and phrase, paragraphs.

The Hat Full of Secrets: Exploring being me: Character description. Short story: Finger spaces, punctuation, what makes up words

Jack and the Beanstalk: Rags to Riches narrative. Instructions. Nouns and conjunctions, suffixes

Katie in London: Non fiction books and travel Guides. Writing guides and information texts: apostrophes

Sally and the Limpet: Stories with different Geographical settings: setting descriptions. Short reports: KS1 Grammar review

The Storm Whale: Rescue Stories. Narrative A House for a Hermit Crab: Stories with ocean/coastal settings

Badgers A

Squirrels B

Use a new fiction, non fiction and poem to share each week and create discussions and follow up tasks. Reading for pleasure and sharing language and stories

Focus on phonics, rhyme, songs and listening for and forming a full range of sounds

Focus on mark making and letter formation and opportunities to speak, role play, mark and listen in Continuous provision

Focus on Quality phonics input through daily Read Write Inc Skills

Use pen pals for handwriting and ensure fine motor skills opportunities are developed daily and pencil grip is developed through creative learning activities in provision.

EYFS

Lights on Cotton Rock: Writing newspaper reports, narrative writing. Explore non fiction history texts: Finger spaces, punctuation, using and

Zagazoo, The Wild Washerwoman, Cockatoos: Exploring setting description: nouns, expanded nouns, conjunctions

Anansi and stories from other cultures: Developing plot and narrative: singular and plural suffixes, verbs, prefixes

A Caribbean Dozen: Exploring rhythm in poetry apostrophes, past and present tenses, adjectives

The Mousehole Cat: Cornish traditional tales. Instructional writing. Character description: Consolidate KS1 Grammar.

Harry the Poisonous centipede. Explore non fiction texts: Information reports: Basic cohesive devices

Squirrels A

